In 2011 Mt. Moriah Cemetery closed its gates with no warning to families. As the site slowly deteriorated a small group of friends decided to clean up the 200 acres on their own. It was soon clear that Mt. Moriah was more than just an eyesore-it was a cultural gem full of forgotten stories.

Come hear the stories of residents interred at Mt. Moriah as told by family, friends and historians. Learn about Mt. Moriah's rich 161 year old history.
